Phil and Bonnie,

This week, I learned that our case challenging Martin Marietta's NPDES permit (which was dismissed on the grounds that the NPDES program doesn't protect recreational or aesthetic injuries), has been reassigned to the lead counsel in our case challenging the Titan America cement plant. So we fully expect to encounter the "substantial prejudice" argument in that case on appeal as well. Please let me know if there's any additional information I can provide as you all continue your internal deliberations. Thanks,
Geoff
